ORDER PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY RULES 1007(i) AND 2004 AUTHORIZING DISCOVERY AND COMPELLING
DISCLOSURE OF LISTS OF SECURITY HOLDERS

I. Introduction

This matter is before the Court on the Urgent Motion of the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico for Entry of an Order Under Bankruptcy Rules 1007(i) and 2004 Authorizing Discovery and Compelling Disclosure of Lists of Security Holders dated April 8, 2019 (Dkt. No. 6143) (the “2004 Motion”).<sup>2</sup> The Court hereby finds and determines that (i) the Court has jurisdiction to consider the 2004 Motion and the relief requested therein; (ii) venue is

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors in these Title III Cases, along with each Debtor’s respective Title III case number and the last four (4) digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number, as applicable, are the (i) Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3283-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3481); (ii) Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3284-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 8474); (iii) Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (“HTA”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3567-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3808); (iv) Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 3566-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 9686); and (v) Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (“PREPA”) (Bankruptcy Case No. 17 BK 4780-LTS) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3747) (Title III case numbers are listed as Bankruptcy Case numbers due to software limitations).

proper before this Court pursuant to Section 307(a) of PROMESA; and (iii) due and proper notice of this 2004 Motion has been provided under the particular circumstances and no other or further notice need be provided.

The Court has carefully considered the arguments made in opposition to the 2004 Motion by U.S. Bank National Association and U.S. Bank Trust National Association (together, “U.S. Bank”) (Dkt. Nos. 6193, 6322), the Bank of New York Mellon (Dkt. Nos. 6194, 6321) and Bank of America N.A. (Dkt. Nos. 6195, 6323) (the “Objectors”). The Court takes seriously the Objectors’ concerns regarding burden and confidentiality. Nevertheless, the Court finds that under Rules 2004 and 1007(i) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, good cause exists for the production of discovery as requested in the 2004 Motion. The Court hereby ALLOWS IN PART and DENIES IN PART the 2004 Motion in accordance with the specific rulings set forth herein.

II. Rule 2004

“Legitimate goals of Rule 2004 examinations include ‘discovering assets, examining transactions, and determining whether wrongdoing has occurred.’” In re Wash. Mut., Inc., 408 B.R. 45, 50 (Bankr. Del. 2009) (citing In re Enron Corp., 281 B.R. 836, 840 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002)). “The purpose of a Rule 2004 examination is to discover the nature and extent of the bankruptcy estate in order to distribute the debtor’s assets for the benefit of its creditors.” In re Bibhu LLC, 2019 WL 171550, at *2 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 10, 2019) (internal citations and quotations omitted). The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (“Oversight Board”), acting by and through its Special Claims Committee, is seeking customer information in connection with its intent to file avoidance actions in these cases under Title III of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act, 48 U.S.C. 2101, et seq. ("PROMESA"). Through those actions, the Oversight Board will seek to claw back assets for the estate. (2004 Motion ¶ 16). The Board seeks the customer information at issue here in order to identify defendants in those cases. (Id. ¶ 18). The Oversight Board's purported use of the sought discovery falls well within the scope of Rule 2004, and thus good cause exists to grant the 2004 Motion.

III. Specific Objections

The Objectors raise specific concerns with the requested discovery. The Court will address each in turn.

A. Burden

The Court first considers the multiple objections based on the burden of an expedited production. As an initial matter, this Court recognizes that the Oversight Board could have sought this information considerably earlier in these proceedings than it did. Nevertheless, the Oversight Board has shown it has engaged in reasonable efforts to obtain the needed customer information elsewhere and that cause exists for the production of information on an expedited basis given upcoming deadlines in these cases. Further, and as ordered herein, the Oversight Board has provided, and shall continue to provide, the Objectors with as much identifying information as possible in order to lessen the burden of locating the requested discovery. The Court emphasizes that if there is any information in the Oversight Board's control which it can disclose to the Objectors that would aid in the collection of the requested discovery, such information must be shared.

Objectors, as the financial institutions engaging with their customers, are uniquely situated to provide the information needed by the Oversight Board. The Court does not minimize the significant burden this order will place on the producing parties, but does recognize that allowing this 2004 Motion is the least burdensome way, if not the only way, to obtain the needed information. Nevertheless, in order to lessen the burden, as provided below, this Court has allowed for rolling productions to occur, and for the production to go beyond the original deadlines asked for by the Oversight Board.

B. Pending Equitable Tolling Motion

Objectors next ask that this Court not allow the 2004 Motion because the need for expedited production may be obviated by the Court's decision on the Equitable Tolling Motion pending before Judge Swain. (See, Dkt. No. 6193 ¶ 10). That motion has not yet been decided and thus cannot impact the merits of the Court's decision here. Absent a definitive ruling on that motion, the Oversight Board's deadlines for avoidance actions are real and create good cause for expedited discovery. This order is without prejudice to the parties hereto returning to this Court at a later date should the Equitable Tolling Motion be allowed and good cause exist for relaxing the production timeline set forth herein.

C. Need for PBA Bond Information

U.S. Bank specifically objects to the expedited timeline for producing information relevant to the PBA Bonds (See id. ¶ 6 ("U.S. Bank is aware of no statutory deadlines relating to PBA, which is not in a Title III proceeding, or any other proceeding, and so it is unclear why the Oversight Board requires discovery relating to the PBA Bonds on such an unreasonably tight timeframe.")). As the Oversight Board references in the 2004 Motion, the PBA Bonds are presently being challenged in litigation pending in the Commonwealth Title III case. For example, in the Omnibus Conditional Objection of the Ad Hoc Group of General Obligation Bondholders to Claims Filed or Asserted by the Public Buildings Authority, Holders of Public Buildings Authority Bonds, and Holders of Certain Commonwealth General Obligation Bonds (Dkt. No. 6099), the GO Group, as defined therein, moves, conditionally, to:

disallow[] claims asserted against the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico [] on account of the Commonwealth's obligations under leases with the [PBA] and the Commonwealth's guaranty of bonds issued by the PBA [], or in the alternative, disallowing claims asserted against the Commonwealth on account of Commonwealth general obligation bonds and PBA Bonds issued beginning fiscal year 2010 insofar as and to the extent that such issuances are determined to have violated the Commonwealth's constitutional debt limit.

(Id. at 1). To the extent that PBA Bonds are challenged in the course of that motion and other litigation in the Commonwealth Title III case such that the Commonwealth could recoup funds by filing avoidance actions against PBA bondholders, good cause exists for the production of the PBA Bond information. It is the Court's understanding that any such avoidance actions must also be filed by May 2, 2019 such that time is of the essence in the production of PBA bondholder information as well as GO bondholder information. If this is not the case, the parties may seek to extend the production date for the PBA information.

D. Confidentiality

The Court next acknowledges that each of the Objectors raise significant confidentiality concerns. The Oversight Board has addressed some of their concerns through proposed confidentiality language as expressed in its revised proposed order. (See Dkt. No. 6248, Ex. A). Objectors do not raise issue with that language but seek further protection from this Court. In their additional requests, Objectors refer broadly to federal, state and foreign confidentiality regulations with which they are obligated to comply. (See e.g., Dkt. No. 6194 at 3-4). Objectors ask this Court to exempt them from obligations under those regulatory frameworks and to protect them from any liability that may result from their production. However, not only have the Objectors failed to identify which specific regulations are at issue, but they have not even attempted to establish that this Court has jurisdiction to relieve them of their compliance obligations. This Court is not prepared to do so sua sponte.

The parties are hereby ordered to meet and confer, and to submit a proposed confidentiality agreement, or competing proposals, to the Court on or before April 23, 2019. The confidentiality agreement shall be in accordance with the rulings made and guidance given herein.

1. As an initial matter, none of the Objectors have shown that any data privacy regulation, whether, state, local, federal or international, precludes the financial institutions from providing the requested customer information upon court order. The Oversight Board, on the other hand, argues that disclosure of the information of the type requested herein is authorized by regulation. (Dkt. No. 6248 ¶ 11 (citing 12 C.F.R. § 1016.15(a) (“The requirements for initial notice . . . do not apply when you disclose nonpublic personal information . . . [t]o comply with a properly authorized civil, criminal, or regulatory investigation, or subpoena or summons by Federal, state, or local authorities; or [to] respond to judicial process or governmental regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over you for examination . . . ”))). This Court finds that the requested information is relevant under Rule 2004, and must be produced.<sup>3</sup> The Court does adopt in part the Objectors’ proposal and expressly confirms as follows:

<sup>3</sup> For the avoidance of doubt, and as represented by the Oversight Board in their reply papers, customer social security numbers and account numbers shall not be produced in connection with this order. (See id. ¶ 12).

To the extent any federal, state or foreign law or other legal authority governing the disclosure or use of confidential information, including personal data or non-public personal financial information, permits disclosure of such information pursuant to an order of a court, this order shall constitute such a court order.

2. U.S. Bank has further requested that “any pleadings, motions, objections, and oppositions, responses and replies thereto, or any document or paper filed before the Court, containing confidential information shall be filed under seal absent other agreement or order of the Court, after notice to all relevant parties.” (Dkt. No. 6322 ¶ 6). While the parties’ confidentiality agreement shall address the filing of confidential information with the Court, sealing should be proposed only in very limited circumstances, if at all. Not only does sealing keep information from the public, but it imposes an incredible administrative burden on the Court. The parties shall explore the option of redacting confidential information as provided for by Local Rule 5.2.

3. U.S. Bank and Bank of America, N.A. have also proposed that this Court order that they are relieved of their obligations to obtain a “court-ordered subpoena,” from having to “notify and/or obtain consent from any person or entity prior to the disclosure of Personal Data or Non-Public Financial Information, and/or having to provide a certification that notice has been waived for good cause” as may be required by “any United States federal or state law or other United States legal authority governing the disclosure or use of Confidential Information, including personal data or non-public personal financial information[.]” (See Dkt. No. 6323 at 3-4). However, as noted above, the Objectors have not identified the regulations at issue or this Court’s jurisdiction to enter such an order. This Court expresses no opinion as to the scope of the Objectors’ obligations, if any, under any applicable law or regulation. Nothing herein is intended to alter the Objectors’ compliance obligations in any way, except to the extent that relevant laws or regulations contemplate exceptions for compliance with court orders. This Court does order, however, as requested by the Objectors, that “[a]ny Disclosing Person or Receiving Party may seek additional orders from the Court that such Party believes may be necessary to comply with any Personal Data or Non-Party Financial Information Law and/or contractual obligation.” (See id. at 4).

4. Finally, Bank of New York Mellon has requested that the Oversight Board be ordered to indemnify it for any claims arising from its compliance with this order. (Dkt. No. 6194 at 3). The Court declines to do so. Not only has Bank of New York Mellon failed to establish that it is prohibited in any way from producing the information, but, as detailed below, the Court has allowed Bank of New York Mellon additional time, as it requested, to produce the information and provide whatever notice to customers it feels is necessary.

E. Cost-Shifting

Finally, the Court overrules the Objectors’ requests for cost-shifting. The Participant Holders are uniquely situated to provide the information requested by the Oversight Board, which this Court has ruled is relevant to the disposition of these Title III cases. The Oversight Board has provided the Participant Holders with information helpful in locating and producing the requested information.

“[W]hen discovery is ordered against a non-party, the only question before the Court in considering whether to shift costs is whether the subpoena imposes significant expense on the non-party.” Legal Voice v. Stormans, Inc., 738 F.3d 1178, 1184 (9th Cir. 2013). Among the factors considered by courts in determining whether to shift costs from the non-party are “(1) whether the non-party has an interest in the outcome of the litigation; (2) whether the nonparty can more readily bear the costs of production than the requesting party; and (3) whether the litigation is of public importance.” High Rock Westminster St., LLC v. Bank of Am., N.A., 2014 WL 12782611, at *1 (D.R.I. June 17, 2014) (internal citation and quotation omitted). “Where the non-party was . . . substantially involved in the underlying transaction, courts have found the non-party to be interested in the outcome of the litigation.” Id. at *2 (internal citation and quotation omitted). Here, the Objectors were purportedly involved in the allocation of relevant payments to customers. They are also sophisticated financial institutions capable of paying for discovery efforts where necessary. Finally, these Title III cases are of public importance to, amongst others, the citizens of Puerto Rico. The Participant Holders shall bear the costs of production.

IV. Specific Rulings

In accordance with the above, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The 2004 Motion is allowed in part and denied in part as provided herein.
2. The Oversight Board is authorized to issue the Document Request, attached as Exhibit B to the 2004 Motion (Exhibit B to Dkt. No. 6143) to the Participant Holders identified at Appendix 2 to Exhibit B to the 2004 Motion, as such appendix may be supplemented or amended upon receipt of information sufficient to identify Participant Holders of the Challenged Bond series identified at Appendix 3 to Exhibit B.
3. The Oversight Board shall promptly make available, upon request by any Participant Holder, an electronic document listing the Challenged GO Bonds, the CUSIP of each such Challenged GO Bonds, and the dates upon which payments are thought to have been made by the Commonwealth to purported holders of such Challenged GO Bonds based upon publicly available documents.

4. The Oversight Board shall promptly provide any additional information relating to the GO, ERS, and PBA Bonds it has obtained from any source to help the Objectors locate the requested information.
5. The parties shall meet and confer regarding the creation of an appropriate confidentiality agreement to govern the produced data, taking into account the guidance provided above. The parties shall submit such proposal, or competing proposals to the Court, on or before April 23, 2019. The Court will then take the proposals on submission.
6. The Participant Holders shall respond to the Document Request as follows:
  - a. As pertaining to the Challenged GO Bonds and PBA Bonds, no later than April 25, 2019. For good cause shown, if the Participant Holders are unable to complete their production by April 25, 2019, they may continue to produce documents up to and until April 30, 2019. Documents shall be produced on a rolling basis within these periods to the extent possible.
  - b. As pertaining to ERS Bonds, not later than May 8, 2019. Documents shall be produced on a rolling basis to the extent possible.
7. The terms and conditions of this order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

This order resolves Dkt. No. 6143.

SO ORDERED.

RULES 1007(i) AND 2004 AUTHORIZING DISCOVERY AND COMPELLING
DISCLOSURE OF LISTS OF SECURITY HOLDERS

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors in these Title III cases, along with each Debtor's respective Title III case number and the last four (4) digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, as applicable, are the (i) Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (Bankruptcy Case No. 17-BK-3283 (LTS)) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3481); (ii) Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation ("COFINA") (Bankruptcy Case No. 17-BK-3284 (LTS)) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 8474); (iii) Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority ("HTA") (Bankruptcy Case No. 17-BK-3567 (LTS)) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3808); (iv) Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico ("ERS") (Bankruptcy Case No. 17-BK-3566 (LTS)) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 9686); and (v) Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority ("PREPA") (Bankruptcy Case No. 17-BK-4780 (LTS)) (Last Four Digits of Federal Tax ID: 3747) (Title III case numbers are listed as Bankruptcy Case numbers due to software limitations).

To the Honorable United States District Court Judge Laura Taylor Swain:

Pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 1007(i) and 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, made applicable to the above-captioned cases by sections 301 and 310 of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”),<sup>2</sup> the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board”), acting by and through its Special Claims Committee (the “Special Claims Committee”), respectfully submits this urgent motion (the “Urgent Motion”) for entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Proposed Order”), requiring the production of lists of securities holders that received certain payments on account of certain bonds issued by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Commonwealth”), the Employees Retirement System for the Commonwealth (“ERS”), and the Puerto Rico Public Buildings Authority (the “PBA”), on the dates identified by CUSIP and date as provided at Appendix 3 to Exhibit B, by certain financial entities identified at Appendix 2 to Exhibit B, as may be supplemented or amended. In support of this Urgent Motion, the Oversight Board respectfully states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT<sup>3</sup>

1. As related in the Motion of the Financial Oversight and Management Board of Puerto Rico for Entry of an Order Equitably Tolling the Time Prescribed by 11 U.S.C. § 546 to Bring certain Avoidance Actions [ECF No. 6118] (the “Equitable Tolling Motion”), the Oversight Board presently may be required to exercise rights to litigate all avoidance claims under sections 544, 547, 548, 550 of the Bankruptcy Code held by the Commonwealth and ERS not later than May 2, 2019, and by May 20, 2019, respectively.

2. The Oversight Board has been working diligently, on its own and with AAFAF and the UCC, to identify and pursue valuable claims before they arguably expire. The Oversight Board and the UCC have likewise collaborated on, among other things, the Joint Claim Objection relating to certain GO Bonds, and have jointly contemplated the filing of Avoidance Actions to recover payments made on account of the Challenged Bonds. The Oversight Board has discussed this Urgent Motion with the UCC.

3. The Commonwealth and its instrumentalities made billions of dollars in payments of principal and interest to purported holders of Challenged Bonds during the four-year lookback period prior to the commencement of the Commonwealth Title III Case. To pursue avoidance and recovery of these payments, the Oversight Board must identify the holders of Challenged Bonds who received payments of purported principal and interest, which payments may be avoidable under PROMESA and the Bankruptcy Code, depending on the outcome of the Joint Claim Objection, ERS Bond Objection and Ad Hoc Objection.

4. Because Puerto Rico did not designate an indenture trustee to administer the Challenged Bonds, the Oversight Board must independently identify each beneficial holder of the Challenged Bonds, at the time of each payment date for each CUSIP for each of the Challenged Bonds. At this time, the Oversight Board, together with the UCC, has been unable to complete this massive undertaking.

5. The Oversight Board now understands that the best, if not only, way to identify the beneficial holders of Challenged Bonds is by obtaining that information from third-party financial institutions. Concerning at least the GO Bonds, it appears that the Commonwealth issued its payments of purported principal and interest to DTC, which disbursed the funds to Participant Holders, i.e., financial institutions holding Challenged Bonds on behalf of an investor clientele (and/or themselves). While the Commonwealth and ERS employed fiscal agents for certain Challenged PBA and ERS Bonds, it appears that these bonds also may have been serviced through DTC and it is not clear whether the fiscal agents compiled records of payments of purported principal and interest to beneficial holders.<sup>4</sup> The Participant Holders thus may be, to the Oversight Board's knowledge, the only persons having any record of the identity of the beneficial holders at relevant times.

6. Preserving the Debtors' estates' potentially valuable Avoidance Actions thus requires that the Participant Holders and other financial institutions disclose to the Oversight Board the identities of the beneficial holders who received potentially voidable payments. Moreover, the Oversight Board requires the Participant Holders and other financial institutions to make such disclosures sufficiently prior to May 2, 2019 as to Challenged GO Bonds and PBA Bonds, and sufficiently prior to May 20, 2019 as to ERS Bonds.

7. As indicated in the Equitable Tolling Motion, the Oversight Board was only recently able to piece together the financial records sufficient to know whom to ask and what to ask for regarding the Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions. The Oversight Board requested hundreds of Securities Position Reports from DTC, which it expects will identify with reasonable accuracy the Participant Holders for the 911 CUSIP payment dates corresponding to the Challenged GO Bonds. Even before making the request to DTC, the Oversight Board had begun requesting information on an urgent basis from persons it reasonably believed may have been Participant Holders. After constructing a list of Participant Holders, the Oversight Board issued similarly urgent requests to each. The Oversight Board has received no disclosures from any of

<sup>4</sup> Moreover, it seems that many if not all of the parties acting as fiscal agents for some bonds acted as Participant Holders for the same and other bonds as well. Accordingly, for purposes of this Motion, the term "Participant Holders" includes the fiscal agents of the ERS and PBA Bonds, regardless of the capacity in which they may possess the requested documents.

the Participant Holders. To the contrary, every Participant Holder that has responded to the Oversight Board's information requests has indicated it requires a court order or subpoena to disclose the requested information.

8. The Oversight Board respectfully submits that the information requested herein is reasonable, limited in scope, necessary to preserve value for the estate, not burdensome, and that good cause exists under the Bankruptcy Rules to compel production on an expedited basis.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the "Court") has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to section 306(a) of PROMESA.

10. Venue is proper pursuant to PROMESA § 307(a).

STATUTORY PREDICATE

11. The Oversight Board brings this Urgent Motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) and Bankruptcy Rules 1007(i) and 2004, made applicable to these Title III cases by sections 301 and 310 of PROMESA respectively.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

12. The Oversight Board incorporates herein by reference the statements of fact contained in the Equitable Tolling Motion.

13. In January 2019, The Oversight Board, in discharge of its duties under PROMESA, and acting by and through the Special Claims Committee, joined the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "UCC") in commencing litigation contending that several 2012 and 2014 issuances of Commonwealth of Puerto Rico General Obligation Bonds

(the “First Challenged GO Bonds”)<sup>5</sup> violated Puerto Rico’s constitutional debt limit, and that claims by purported holders of the Challenged Bonds for principal and interest should be disallowed. Omnibus Objection of (I) Financial Oversight and Management Board, Acting through its Special Claims Committee, and (II) Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 502 and Bankruptcy Rule 3007, to Claims Filed or Asserted by Holders of Certain Commonwealth General Obligation Bonds, ECF No. 4784 (the “Joint Claim Objection”).

14. On March 12, 2019, the UCC filed the Omnibus Objection of Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Claims Asserted by Holders of Bonds Issued by Employees Retirement System of Government of Puerto Rico, ECF No. 5580 (the “ERS Bond Objection”), contending that ERS issued approximately $3.5 billion of bonds ultra vires, and thus that such bonds (the “ERS Bonds”) are null and void.

15. On April 2, 2019, a group of holders of First Challenged GO Bonds filed the Omnibus Conditional Objection of the Ad Hoc Group of General Obligation Bondholders to Claims Filed or Asserted by the Public Buildings Authority, Holders of Public Buildings Authority Bonds, and Holders of Certain Commonwealth General Obligation Bonds, ECF No. 6099 (the “Ad Hoc Objection”), contending that, should the Court accept various factual and legal premises contained in the Joint Claim Objection, the Court should find on similar grounds that certain series of additional GO Bonds (the “Second Challenged GO Bonds”) and bonds issued by the PBA (the “PBA Bonds”) were also null and void. Hereinafter, the Second <sup>5</sup> In paragraph eleven of the Joint Claim Objection (as defined in this Motion), the Oversight Board and the UCC reserved their right “to raise additional objections to the validity of other issuances of GO bonds.” See ECF No. 4784 at ¶ 11 (emphasis added). The definition of Challenged Bonds in the Equitable Tolling Motion includes any additional GO Bond issuances which the Oversight Board, pursuant to its reservation of rights, seeks to add to the Joint Claim Objection. For purposes of this Motion, the terms “First Challenged GO Bonds,” “Challenged GO Bonds,” and “Challenged Bonds” likewise include such additional issuances subject to objection.

Challenged GO Bonds shall together with the First Challenged GO Bonds be referenced as the “Challenged GO Bonds;” and the Challenged GO Bonds together with the PBA Bonds and ERS Bonds shall collectively be referred to as the “Challenged Bonds.”<sup>6</sup>

16. Simultaneous with the Joint Claim Objection, the Oversight Board and the UCC recognized that, to the extent successful in the Joint Claim Objection (and to the extent that other bond issuances could be null and void), the Oversight Board would have grounds to avoid and recover—or “claw back” payments on the Challenged GO Bonds. In sum, the Oversight Board asserts that, to the extent that the First Challenged GO Bonds were legally null, the Commonwealth had no legal obligation to make payments to purported holders. Thus, it received no reasonably equivalent value in return for payments of purported principal and interest. Moreover, any such payments may have been issued at a time when the Commonwealth was insolvent, and otherwise may have satisfied the legal standard to plead, among other causes of action, causes of action in the nature of constructive fraudulent transfer. Similarly, these same “claw back” causes of action could also apply to the other Challenged Bonds (collectively, the “Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions”).

17. The Challenged GO Bonds are unlike typical municipal bond issuances in that there is no indenture trustee to represent the interests of the GO bondholders. Because the GO Bonds do not have a fiscal agent or indenture trustee, holders of GO Bonds are not required to file a proof of claim in the Commonwealth Title III Case. Order (A) Establishing Deadlines and Procedures for Filing Proofs of Claims and (B) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof, ECF No. 2521. While the ERS Bonds and PBA Bonds were administered through fiscal agents,

<sup>6</sup> See above footnote 5. The definition of Challenged Bonds in this Motion includes any additional GO Bond issuances which the Oversight Board, pursuant to its reservation of rights, seeks to add to the Joint Claim Objection and any other bonds which may be challenged by the Oversight Board or other parties-in-interest.

with whom the Oversight Board has had some contact during these Title III Cases, it is not yet clear what type of information the ERS and PBA Bond agents retained regarding purported principal and interest payments.

18. The Oversight Board has left no stone unturned in its efforts to identify potential defendants to the Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions. The Oversight Board has engaged in numerous discussions and made numerous inquiries to third-party professionals involved in the GO Bonds issuances, the Oversight Board's bankruptcy counsel and financial advisors, and counsel and financial advisors to the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority ("AAFAF"). Unfortunately, these parties have not been able to provide the information necessary to identify all of the recipients of such potentially avoidable transfers ("Challenged Bond Avoidance Defendants").

19. The Oversight Board is not working alone. In continuation of their collaborative effort regarding the Joint Claim Objection, the Oversight Board and the UCC are coordinating to identify the ultimate recipients of such potentially avoidable transfers. The UCC's professionals have assisted in compiling lists of CUSIPs and payment dates necessary to identify Challenged Bond Avoidance Defendants once source data can be obtained, and in investigating potential sources for the data itself. The Oversight Board and the UCC have been in near-daily contact regarding these efforts and the necessity for the Oversight Board to seek the relief requested in this Urgent Motion.

20. Based on the information available to the Oversight Board, it appears that, when the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities made payments on the Challenged Bonds, they transferred the funds to DTC, which transferred the payments to various participant financial institutions likely holding bonds on behalf of purported beneficial holders (the "Participant Holders”).<sup>7</sup> Each Participant Holder then likely transferred all, or a portion of, the payments to its customers.

21. Accordingly, the Oversight Board coordinated with DTC, via Prime Clerk in compliance with a recommended procedure, to obtain bond payment records. DTC has offered to provide “Security Position Reports” showing the participant holders of bonds on any given Friday. In other words, the Oversight Board is able to understand from these reports not how much money was paid to whom, but only which financial institutions held the bonds on the Friday preceding and/or following the payments. At the time of this writing, the Oversight Board has not received any of the requested Security Position Reports, notwithstanding initial assurances that the first batch of 596 reports would be prepared by April 5, 2019.

22. Nevertheless, the Oversight Board has contacted certain entities, which it was able to identify with reasonable certainty as Participant Holders based on other source information, to obtain their payment records to identify the information required to file Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions. The responses received thus far suggest that consensual disclosure of the information, to the extent possible, may not occur swiftly enough to permit the Oversight Board to timely file Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions against all appropriate defendants. Moreover, all of the Participant Holders that responded to the Oversight Board’s

<sup>7</sup> It is possible that the Commonwealth and ERS, as to the PBA and ERS Bonds, respectively, first transferred funds to their respective fiscal agents, which either transferred funds directly to bondholders or to DTC as an intermediary. Preliminary diligence suggests the latter. Regardless, by this Motion the Oversight Board requests permission to request sufficient documentation to resolve this factual issue and obtain appropriate information to preserve its Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions.

It is also possible that the Participant Holders were beneficial holders or otherwise served as “initial transferees” of bond payments for purposes of the Bankruptcy Code, and thus may be Challenged Bond Avoidance Defendants. The Oversight Board reserves all rights to timely allege claims and causes of action against the Participant Holders.

information requests indicated they will not disclose the identity of Challenged Bond Avoidance Defendants absent a court order or subpoena.<sup>8</sup>

23. To be clear, it is difficult even to identify Participant Holders, much less Challenged Bond Avoidance Defendants. For instance, with respect to any given CUSIP subject to the Joint Claim Objection, the Oversight Board has already ordered a Security Position Report for each date the CUSIP is believed to have been paid within the applicable lookback period for a constructive fraudulent transfer.

24. Thus, using the First Challenged GO Bonds as an example, the Oversight Board's process is as follows:

- There are thirty-seven (37) CUSIPS currently subject to the Joint Claim Objection, some of which CUSIPs were paid semi-annually whereas others were paid monthly.<sup>9</sup>
- Spread over the First Challenged GO Bond CUSIPs and payment dates, the Oversight Board ordered five hundred and ninety-six (596) Security Position Reports.
- The Security Position Reports are expected to identify 10-20 Participant Holders of the First Challenged GO Bonds,<sup>10</sup> most of which acted as Participant Holders for substantially all of the CUSIPs and payment dates.
- With each Participant Holder expected to provide approximately 596 responsive documents, the Oversight Board thus expects to receive

<sup>8</sup> The Oversight Board does have authority, pursuant to PROMESA § 104, 48 U.S.C. § 2124, to issue subpoenas. Having investigated the process for obtaining a subpoena, the Oversight Board understands it would not be possible to obtain subpoenas in sufficient time to preserve its rights with respect to the Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions.

<sup>9</sup> There are an additional three First Challenged GO Bond CUSIPs that were not subject to the Joint Claim Objection but nevertheless may form the basis for Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions. These CUSIPs represent series of GO Bonds that matured and were satisfied prior to the Commonwealth Petition Date, thus not forming the basis for any claims against the Commonwealth estate.

<sup>10</sup> As demonstrated at Appendix 2 to Exhibit B hereto, the Participant Holders operate through numerous subsidiaries under a single parent, which appears to be in most cases the sole entity identified on Security Position Reports on behalf of all subsidiaries. The Oversight Board has served notice of this Urgent Motion on the parent entities. References herein to Participant Holders should be understood to mean the parent entities, unless subsidiaries are specifically identified in the Security Position Reports.

approximately 9,000 data sets, with each data set expected to identify hundreds or thousands of discrete, potentially avoidable transfers.

- The Oversight Board will have to collate this information into tables useful to identify defendants together with relevant CUSIP holdings, dates of receipt, amounts received, and service addresses, and determine whether the circumstances militate the filing of litigation against each of the transferees or a subset thereof.
- The Oversight Board will have to accomplish this task not later than May 2, 2019, and then serve the summons and complaint on Challenged Bond Avoidance Defendants located in the United States not later than May 9, 2019.

25. These approximately 9,000 data sets, and the tasks required to process them into a form useful for litigation, pertain only to the First Challenged GO Bonds. The Oversight Board expects that the First Challenged GO Bonds account for less than forty percent (40%) of the total avoidable payments and related data required to be produced in order for to file and prosecute all Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions.

26. Under the best of circumstances—i.e., immediate disclosure of all Challenged Bond Avoidance Defendants and related information by all Participant Holders—it will be a tremendous accomplishment for the Oversight Board’s professionals to prepare, file and serve the appropriate documents in a timely fashion. For this reason, the Oversight Board continues to ask that the Court grant the Equitable Tolling Motion for the reasons stated therein to enable the Debtors to file Challenged Bond Avoidance Actions after May 2, 2019 if necessary.<sup>11</sup> To be clear, however, even if the Court were to grant the Equitable Tolling Motion, the Oversight Board believes it should also grant the urgent relief sought herein to ensure that the Oversight Board may commence as many of the Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions as possible on or

<sup>11</sup> See Equitable Tolling Motion, ¶ 25, footnote 5. The Oversight Board has reserved the right to raise objections to bonds including but not limited to the Challenged Bonds. The Equitable Tolling Motion is thus not coextensive with this Motion, and a grant of sufficient relief with respect to this Motion would not obviate the need for the relief requested in the Equitable Tolling Motion.

before May 2, 2019, which remains the best and most certain way to preserve the Debtors' rights.

RELIEF REQUESTED

27. By this Urgent Motion, the Oversight Board, acting by and through its Special Claims Committee, requests that this Urgent Motion be heard on an urgent basis prior to the next scheduled omnibus date and at the Court's earliest convenience to the extent the Court determines a hearing is necessary, and seeks the entry of an order requiring each of the Participant Holders identified at Appendix 2 to Exhibit B, as such list may be supplemented or amended upon receipt of additional information, to produce a list of all beneficial holders of Challenged Bonds to whom payments of purported principal and interest were transferred with respect to the bond series and date ranges provided at Appendix 3 to Exhibit B, together with the amounts and dates of such payments and service address information for each such transferee.

ARGUMENT

28. The Oversight Board respectfully suggests that cause exists to require disclosure of the requested information on an expedited basis.

29. Bankruptcy Rule 2004(a) provides that "[o]n motion of any party in interest, the court may order the examination of any entity." The scope of such examination may relate to "the acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor's estate." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(b). The purpose of a Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examination is to assist a party in interest in determining the nature and extent of the bankruptcy estate, revealing assets including but not limited to litigation assets. See In re Wash. Mut., Inc., 408 B.R. 45, 50 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009); see also In re Recoton Corp., 307 B.R. 751, 755 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004).

30. Bankruptcy Rule 1007(i) provides that “[a]fter notice and hearing and for cause shown, the court may direct an entity other than the debtor or trustee to disclose any list of security holders of the debtor in its possession or under its control, indicating the name, address and security held by any of them.” The context of Rule 1007(i) within Rule 1007 suggests that, like other lists of assets and liabilities and payment records of a debtor, it is intended to illuminate the value of the estate to the court and parties in interest, including by promoting the development and prosecution of valuable litigation claims. Cf. In re Empire State Conglomerates, Inc., 546 B.R. 306, 316 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2016) (holding on request to remove trustee that where the “Bankruptcy Code does not define ‘cause,’” “caselaw generally requires . . . actual injury to debtor’s interest.”). Here, absent the disclosure of the requested information the Commonwealth will be injured by its inability to recover funds wrongfully transferred away from estate coffers.

31. While it is requesting a large volume of information, the Oversight Board has circumscribed its inquiry in this instance solely to the Challenged Bonds subject to the Joint Claims Objection, ERS Bond Objection, and Ad Hoc Objection. This request is narrowly tailored to the Oversight Board’s efforts to identify the targets of the Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions. As noted above, the first deadline for commencing such actions is approaching in a matter of approximately three weeks from the filing hereof. The Oversight Board must obtain this information without delay to preserve valuable claims for the Commonwealth’s estate, for the benefit of taxpayers and legitimate creditors of Puerto Rico. Cause therefore exists for the Court to schedule a hearing on this Motion on an urgent basis (prior to the next omnibus hearing, currently scheduled for April 24, 2019) and grant the requested relief.

CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL RULES AND CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

32. Pursuant to Paragraph I.H of the Case Management Procedures, the Oversight Board hereby certifies that it has carefully examined the matter and concluded that there is a true need for an urgent motion; is has not created the urgency through any lack of due diligence; it has made a bona fide effort to resolve the matter without a hearing; and it has made reasonable, good-faith communications in an effort to resolve or narrow the issues that are being brought to the Court. No party has indicated that it will object to the relief requested herein.

NOTICE

33. The Debtors have provided notice of this Urgent Motion to: (a) the Chambers of the Honorable Laura Taylor Swain; (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Puerto Rico; (c) AAFAF; (d) counsel for AAFAF; (e) counsel for the Oversight Board; (f) Counsel for the Creditors' Committee; (g) Counsel for the Retiree Committee; (h) the entities listed on the List of Creditors Holding the 20 Largest Unsecured Claims in COFINA's Title III case; (i) counsel to any other statutory committee appointed in these Title III Cases; (j) counsel to any ad hoc bondholder group which has filed a Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2019 statement in these Title III Cases; (k) counsel to Bank of New York Mellon as agent with respect to the ERS Bonds; (l) counsel to U. S. Bank Trust National Association, Banco Popular de Puerto Rico, Bank of New York, and U.S. Bank as agents with respect to the PBA Bonds; (m) counsel to the Ad Hoc GO Bondholders; and (n) the Participant Holders identified in Exhibit B hereto; (o) the Puerto Rico Department of Justice; and (p) all parties filing a notice of appearance in these Title III Cases. The Oversight Board submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Oversight Board, acting by and through its Special Claims Committee, respectfully requests that this Court enter an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A granting the relief requested herein, and granting the Committee such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

FINANCIAL OVERSIGHT AND MANAGEMENT BOARD'S FIRST SET OF DISCOVERY REQUESTS WITH RESPECT TO POTENTIAL AVOIDANCE ACTIONS

Pursuant to the Order attached as Appendix 1 hereto and Rules 1007(i) and 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), made applicable to the above-captioned cases by section 310 of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act ("PROMESA"), the Financial Oversight and Management Board of Puerto Rico hereby requests that the parties identified on the list attached as Appendix 2 hereto produce the documents requested below (the "Document Request") on or before 4:00 p.m. on April 19, 2019, or on such other date as may be agreed to by the parties, to:

- As pertaining to the "ERS Bonds" identified at Appendix 3 hereto:
Proskauer Rose LLP, Attn: Brian S. Rosen, Esq.
(brosen@proskauer.com); and
- As pertaining to all other bonds identified at Appendix 3 hereto:
Brown Rudnick LLP, Attn: Tristan G. Axelrod, Esq.
(taxelrod@brownrudnick.com).

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. "And" and "or" have both conjunctive and disjunctive meanings and therefore should be read as "and/or." Similarly, "all," "any," "each" and "every" are used in the inclusive sense, and therefore should be read as meaning "each and every." The word "including" should be read as meaning "including without limitation."

2. "Person" or "Persons" means any natural or artificial person, business entity or other legal entity, including, but not limited to, individuals, sole proprietorships, associations, companies, firms, partnerships, joint ventures, corporations, employees or former employees, or any other business, governmental, or labor entity, and any divisions, departments, or other units thereof.

3. "Transfer" has the definition set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54).

4. "You" or "Your" means each party identified at Appendix 2 hereto.
5. Reference to the singular in any of these Discovery Requests shall also include a reference to the plural, and reference to the plural shall include a reference to the singular.
6. All information requested herein is to be provided if it is in the possession, custody or control of, or is available and accessible to, You or any of Your agents, representatives or any other Person acting for You or on Your behalf.
7. If You cannot answer any of the following Document Request in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information to do so, answer to the extent possible and explain Your inability to provide a complete answer.
8. If You object to part of the Document Request and refuse to answer that part on the basis of a claim of privilege, state the objection and answer the remaining portion of the request. As to any Communication that You refuse to disclose on the basis of a claim of privilege, identify: (a) the name, address, position, and organization of the participants in the communication, (b) any documents reflecting or summarizing all or part of the communication, including the date, length, and type of document and description of the subject matter of the document, and (c) the specific grounds for claiming that the communication is privileged.
9. This Document Request is to be considered as continuing, and You are to supplement Your responses with additional information as You may hereafter obtain.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1: With respect to any Transfer by You to any Person in respect of the bond series identified during the periods identified at Appendix 3 hereto, produce either a list of or other documents sufficient to identify: (i) the Person who received such Transfer and/or the Person on whose behalf the Transfer was made, (ii) the address of any such Person, (iii) the amount of such Transfer, (iv) the date of such Transfer, and (v) the CUSIP applicable to such Transfer.
